

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for one's fellow man; and,

Whereas, Edward Stanley Hruska has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

Whereas, Ed proudly served his country in the United States Air Force and the South Dakota Army National Guard; and,

Whereas, Ed and his wife, Judy, were married on June 11, 1973, and he has enjoyed his role as a devoted father of four children; Elizabeth, Sarah, Kathleen, and Edward III; and,

Whereas, On September 26, 2008, after 18 years and 6 months of service to the Department of Public Safety's Driver Licensing Program and this great state, Ed is retiring; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 26, 2008, as in South Dakota, and I join his colleagues, family, and friends in wishing him a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Nineteenth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eight.

M. Michael Rounds
